

SENATOR HALL: It sure did.

SENATOR CUDABACK: So now are we ruling this evening if such...

SENATOR HALL: The Chair was wrong at that time. The Chair is...

SENATOR CUDABACK: I think it was on Senator Crosby's...

SENATOR HALL: I think I stated that at the time. No offense, Senator Crosby. The issue at that time was whether or not, Senator Cudaback, the discussion on the germaneness of the issue of the amendment took up the 15-minute debate on the bill itself, and I argued that it did not. We were standing at ease actually at the time.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Right.

SENATOR HALL: And had that been the case, we would have been off the bill much sooner than we were, but that was the decision of the Chair at that time and it stood. It stands in relation to that issue today, but in relation to this issue the debate on this bill has to continue in order to eat up the clock. That's...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Okay, I follow.

SENATOR HALL: ...the interpretation of the Chair.

SENATOR CUDABACK: I will buy that interpretation. Thank you.

SENATOR HALL: You bet, thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: In relationship to this bill I think several things we're talking about here today, and I'm serious when Senator Chambers asked me to question about the title in automobile. I'm not sure at that time whether title needed to be on automobile, but I'll read for you from Chapter 60-320.01. Operation of a vehicle without registration, limitation, proof or ownership; any person purchasing a motor vehicle in this state other than from a licensed dealer in motor vehicles shall not operate such motor vehicle in this state without registration except as provided in this section. Such purchaser may operate such motor vehicle without registration for a period of not to exceed 15 days. That 15 days is not correct now. I
